Notes:
1 Update Service is typically installed with the master Core and uses port 21 (outbound) to check for patches
2 Port 5544 only required between OMS and Device Manager when using M2O to stream video in from Android and iOS devices
3 Additional ports may be used depending on camera manufacturer or manual configuration
4 Optional slave Core is available in Ocularis ENT and ULT only